

Restoring Your Right to Vote

Conditions

If you were convicted in Nevada on or after July 1, 2003:

- of a category A or B felony that resulted in substantial bodily harm to the victim, or
- convicted of two or more felonies, unless the convictions arose out of the same act

You may petition the court of competent jurisdiction for an order granting the restoration of your civil rights.

If, in Nevada, you were convicted of a felony other than a category A or B felony as described above, and have been:

- honorably discharged from probation, or
- honorably discharged from parole, or
- released from prison

You have been restored the following civil rights:

1. The right to vote; and
2. The right to serve as a juror in a civil action.
3. Four years after the date of honorable discharge from parole or probation, pardon, or release from prison the right to hold office.
4. Six years after the date of honorable discharge from parole or probation, pardon, or release from prison the right to serve as a juror in a criminal action.

Conditions (continued)

If you received an unconditional pardon:

You are restored all civil rights and are relieved of all disabilities incurred upon conviction.

If you were convicted of a felony in a federal court or convicted in another state:

Call the Clark County Election Department at (702) 455- 0075 or (702) 455-8683 for direction.

If you were federally convicted in the US District Court of Nevada and the Election Department advises you must provide an Order Terminating Probation or a Signed Letter from the District Court where you were supervised and you do not have that documentation, you can call the main telephone of the US District Probation and Parole Department (702) 527-7300

Registering to Vote

Documentation

Documentation listed below must be presented to the Election Department to ensure your registration is not subsequently canceled:

Probationer – Petition and Order for Honorable Discharge

Parolee – Final Discharge from Parole

Prisoner – Certificate of Discharge

Pardoned – Unconditional Pardon

In Lieu of the Above Documents, a notarized affidavit* affirming your civil rights have been restored by the jurisdiction in which you were convicted of a felony.

*A copy of the affidavit is available at www.clarkcountynv.gov/vote or call the Election Department at (702) 455-0075 or (702) 455-8683.
